PIE AND A PLANT

This plant is for you, Cam!

That is so nice, Jean! Come in and have a slice of pie.

I must not lie. I have not owned a plant before.

I will teach you what to do. First, you must always water the plant, or it might die.

And you should keep it in the light because it needs the sun to grow.

This spot on the shelf is nice and bright. I will move my tie so the plant can fit.

Yes, Cam! It looks very nice up high on the shelf.

Let's have a slice of pie, Jean!

THE HURT BIRD

Mother, there is a bird in the dirt. I think it's hurt.

Chirp

We should take it to the vet. Pick it up with a firm grip and set it in my purse.

There. I folded a shirt in the bag first so that the bird can sit on it.

They drive the bird to the vet.

We are third in line. I told your brother we will be home late.

After some time, the vet calls them in.

The bird has a hurt wing, but it will be just fine. You are a smart girl for bringing it here.

THE LOST MOUSE

Giggles the Clown has lost his pet mouse.

I have not seen my mouse in the house for days.

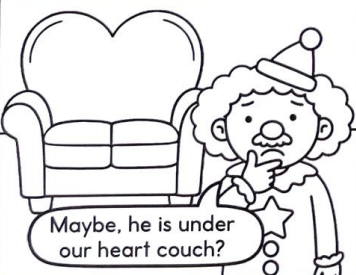

Could he have gone to town?

Is he up in the clouds?

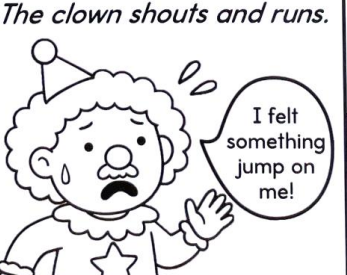

Is he with our cow?

Maybe, he is under our heart couch?

The clown shouts and runs.

I felt something jump on me!

It is just you! I found you! I will keep my eye on you from now on.
