The Pet Show

It was Pet Show Day in our classroom. The room was busy and full of pets.
 Sam had the cutest cat with him. It had the whitest fur and the longest tail.
 Jaz had the largest snake with her. No one wanted to hold it, just in case it liked biting people.
 Drake showed off his pet dog, Russ. He told the class that Russ was the bravest dog because he saved his grandmother from falling over.
 As Drake told the class the tale, his dog began chasing Sam's cat! The cat ran past us all and jumped on top of my teacher's table.
 "He is just hoping to give her a lick," said Drake.
 The cat jumped down, and Russ licked the cat's neck.
 It was an eventful and interesting day in our classroom. I'm not sure whether the teachers will run another Pet Show Day.

1. Sam had the cutest _____ with him. It had the whitest fur and the longest tail.

2. Jaz had the largest _____ with her.

3. As Drake told the class the tale, his dog began _____ Sam's cat!

The Smallish Crab

Lauren and her family were at the seashore on vacation. They were walking along the shore after a thunderstorm. The pretty bluish water now looked grayish. As they trudged in the sand, Lauren looked for pinkish shells to take home with her. Suddenly, she felt something hit her arm.

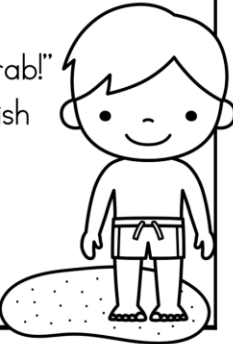

"Bart! Stop throwing sand at me. You're so childish!" she said frustrated.

Bart started to throw some more sand at her when he spotted a reddish crab crawling on his foot. He screamed.

"Don't be foolish, Bart," said Lauren. "It's just a smallish crab!"

Bart did not move. He stood on the spot with a squeamish look on his face. Lauren marched over, gently picked the crab up and placed it in the water.

"Thanks Lauren. I promise I'll be nicer to you," Bart said, with a boyish grin.

The Lost Pair of Socks

Blair was on an airplane trip with her mom. She sat on a chair right by the window which meant she could stare out at the sky. Blair felt sleepy, so she took off her sneakers and socks, put her hair in a bun, and went to sleep. She woke up an hour later and went to put on her sneakers, but her socks were missing! "Mom! My socks are gone!" she gasped. "Don't worry Blair. We can get you another pair to wear," said Mom kindly. "But, Mom. They are my favorite pair. It's not fair," said Blair sadly. Suddenly, a woman stood up a few rows in front of them and asked, "Whose socks are these with bears on them?" "They are mine! I'm so grateful!" gushed Blair. "You are very lucky, Blair," Mom smiled.

Unlock the Chest

Nance found a large locked chest under a blanket in her dad's untidy shed. She uncovered it and wondered whether she could unlock it somehow.

Nance caught sight of a brass key under an unfinished birdhouse. She put the key inside the lock, and the lid opened swiftly. She was truly in shock when she saw what was inside. There was a teddy inside with a bow around its neck! It was a little unclean, and one of the buttons was missing. Just as Nance was about to close the lid, Dad walked into the shed.

"No! You found the surprise I was going to give you! That is unlucky, but to tell you the truth, I was going to clean it up and give it to you tomorrow anyway. It's your mom's old teddy," he exclaimed.

"I love it, Dad. I got a nice surprise when I saw it," Nance said.
